

OBSERVER

8 Things to Do in New York's Art World Before October 1

By Paul Laster | September 28, 2015

Riopelle / Miró: Color, Installation view. (Photo: Courtesy Acquavella Galleries)

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 1

Opening: “Riopelle | Miró: Color” at Acquavella Galleries

An unusual artistic pairing, this exhibition features painted bronze sculptures by the Spanish modernist master Joan Miró and oil paintings by the French abstract expressionist Jean Paul Riopelle. Although their styles were quite different, the two artists were friends, had the same dealers and once even shared a studio in the South of France. The show presents Mr. Miró's vividly painted bronzes of assembled found objects alongside Mr. Riopelle lusciously painted abstractions.

Acquavella Galleries, 18 East 79 Street, New York, 10 a.m.-5 p.m.